

Acquaintances of Executive Committee

President: Dr. Aftabuddin Ahmed ex-Director BCSIR Labs, Dhaka and founder Director of Institute of Glass and Ceramic Research and Testing (IGCRT), BCSIR has been elected as the President, Bangladesh Ceramic Society. Dr. Aftabuddin Ahmed studied chemistry at the university of Dhaka and university of Stuttgart, Germany. Dr. Aftabuddin Ahmed played an active role in establishing the Bangladesh Ceramic Society in 1993. He served as the first general Secretary and then as a vice-president before being elected as President of this Society.

Vice-President: Mr. Asif Arif Tabani has been elected as the vice president of the Bangladesh Ceramic Society. He did his B.Sc. as well as internship in Mugol ceramics in Gujranwala, Pakistan. At present, he is the Managing Director of Mirpur Ceramic Works Ltd. and Chairman of Khadim Ceramic Ltd. Mr. Tabani has been a vice-president of Bangladesh Ceramic Society since its inception in 1993.

Vice-President: Mr. S M Mahbub Alam has been elected as vice-president of the Bangladesh Ceramic Society. He did his M.Sc. in Mathematics and then completed MBA (marketing). At present he is the Chairman, Build Tech Mega Mart Ltd, Managing Director, Pa-Wang Ceramic Industry Ltd. & Pa-Wang Industry Ltd. Mr. Alam is also a proprietor of Global Resources (Imports, Trade) and CEO, Ceramic Solutions.

Vice-President: Dr. Kazi Nasrin Farooque, ex-director of IGCR, BCSIR, Dhaka-1205 has been elected as vice-president of Bangladesh Ceramic Society. Born in 1954, Dr. Nasrin completed her M.Sc. at the Dhaka University, MS at the Institute of Hydraulic and Environmental Science & Technology & PhD in DU. She started her research career in 1979. After retirement from BCSIR, she served in Uttara University as a research professor for the period 2011-2012 and senior research fellow at the Policy Research Fellow for the period 2012-2014.

Vice-President: Mr. S.B. Zaman, Adviser, X-ceramics Ltd/Index companies has been elected as the vice president of Bangladesh Ceramic Society for the year 2015. He has also been a vice president for the period 2005-2006. After obtaining MBA from IBA and post graduate diploma from UK. Mr. Zaman started his career as financial analyst & project appraisal team leader at the Bangladesh Development Bank and then served in the Bangladesh EPZ Authority. Then he joined the ceramic sector and served in the Shinepukur Ceramics Ltd, Artisan Ceramics, Paragon Ceramics and finally X-ceramics Ltd. He also served as an investment promotion delegate at the UNIDO in Tokyo.

General Secretary: Mr. Md. Hedayetul Islam, Instructor (Tech), Bangladesh Institute of Glass and Ceramic, Tejgaon, Dhaka, has been elected as the General Secretary of The Bangladesh Ceramic Society. He studied Ceramic technology at