

Emergency General Meeting of the Bangladesh Ceramic Society (BCerS)

Bangladesh Ceramic Society is a voluntary organization of the professional Ceramists, Chemists, Technologists involved in the ceramic industries, research organization and teaching institutions of the country. Among the various activities of the society, the most important is the Annual General Meeting. But due to unavailable circumstances, AGM of the BCerS was not conducted since 2007.

Under this circumstance, an Emergency General Meeting of the Bangladesh Ceramic Society (BCerS) was held on 16th May, 2015 at IFRD (Institute of Fuel Research and Development) auditorium, BCSIR Campus, Dhaka at 3.00 pm. In absence of the President Mr. R. M. Khan, Vice President, Mr. Asif Ariff Tabani, presided over the meeting. This emergency meeting was conducted only by the notice of fifteen days. This task was very difficult. We do not have the list of members. Addresses of most of the members were changed. We could not circulate the announcement of the emergency general meeting properly. Still 46 members attended the meeting.

Discussion: Mr. Tabani started the meeting with explaining the present situation of Bangladesh Ceramic Society and initiated discussion. Mr.

Hedayetul Islam, (general secretary In-charge) gave a detailed report on the current scenario of the BCerS activities in front of the audience.

Different members took part in the discussion. They were Dr. Aftabuddin Ahmed, Mr. S.M Mahbub Alam, Mr. S. B. Zaman, and Mr. Manjural Karim. Mr. R. M. Khan, president of society attended the meeting lastly and informed the different situations of the society. He also added the necessities of this society. Treasurer Mr. Abdul Hossain reported about financial condition of the Society from 2006. It was observed by all the speakers that the society is inactive since 2006. Reactivation of the society was proposed by all the members.

Resolution taken in the meeting:

- (a) Resolved that the membership of the existing members of the Bangladesh Ceramic Society shall be made up to date by paying membership application for 2015. Dues for earlier years are hereby waived.
- (b) The existing Executive committee is hereby dissolved. An Interim Executive committee for a period up to 31st December 2015, headed by Dr. Aftabuddin Ahmed is hereby constituted.
